What is a Dietetics Practice Audit?

- Quantitative measure of what dietitians and dietetic technicians actually do in practice.
- Comparisons of those measures with previous practice audits
- Identification of distinctions between entry-level RD and DTR practice
- Empirically investigate adequacy of “entry-level” operationally defined in the past as the first three years following registration

Practice Competency-based Professional Development Initiative

Step 1 Learning Plan: Reflect and Assess to Create Your Learning Plan

Introduction

Hi Test, I'm the Goal Wizard. I'm here to help you reflect on your practice and/or future direction in dietetics and nutrition, assess your learning needs, and create a learning plan.

The Goal Wizard assists you in completing Step 1 of the Professional Development Portfolio process. As you work through the steps of the Goal Wizard, you will:

- Develop a Practice Competency Profile, and then
- Prepare and Create a Learning Plan.

Practice Competency Profile
The Practice Competency Profile is a self-reflection and assessment tool used to identify essential competencies that are relevant to your past, current and future role and interests in dietetics and nutrition. The Profile serves as the basis for completing your Learning Plan.

Learning Plan
The Learning Plan is based on your personalized Practice Competency Profile. After you develop your Profile, you will choose performance indicators that relate to each of your competencies, in order to create a Learning Plan that best reflects your current practice needs and goals.

CFP Visioning Report

CFP Recommendation #1

Elevate the preparation for the future entry-level RDN to a minimum of a Graduate degree from an ACEND-accredited program.

CDR Motion – April 2013

Move to change the entry-level registration eligibility education requirements for dietitians beginning in 2024 from a baccalaureate degree to a minimum of a graduate degree. All other entry-level dietitian registration eligibility requirements remain the same.

CDR's Motion does NOT require that the graduate degree be granted by an ACEND accredited program.

Eligibility Criteria for RDN

Current

- Baccalaureate degree from a US accredited college or university or foreign equivalent
- ACEND-accredited DPD program
- ACEND-accredited supervised practice (coordinated program, dietetic internship, or ISPP)

2024

- Graduate degree from a US accredited college or university or foreign equivalent
- ACEND-accredited DPD program
- ACEND-accredited supervised practice (coordinated program, dietetic internship, or ISPP)
