

Student Option Scenarios- January 1, 2024 Graduate Degree Registration Eligibility Requirement

Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD)

- Student completes an ACEND Accredited bachelor's level DPD and an ACEND accredited Dietetic Internship (DI) (neither of which are linked to a master's degree) and earns a master's degree in the student's field of choice, the master's degree could be done before or after the DI.
- Student completes an ACEND accredited bachelor's level DPD and an ACEND accredited DI that is combined with a master's degree program.
- Student has a bachelor's degree in another field and completes coursework to earn a verification statement from a DPD and completes an ACEND accredited DI (which is not linked to a master's degree) and earns a master's degree in the student's field of choice, the master's degree could be done before or after the DI.
- Student has a bachelor's degree in another field and completes coursework to earn a verification statement from a DPD program and completes an ACEND accredited DI that is combined with a master's degree.
- Student completes an ACEND accredited master's level DPD and an ACEND accredited DI.
- Student completes an ACEND Accredited bachelor's level DPD and an Individualized Supervised Practice Pathway (ISPP) in an ACEND accredited program (neither of which are linked to a master's degree) and earns a master's degree in the student's field of choice, the master's degree could be completed before or after the ISPP.
- Student completes ACEND accredited bachelor's level DPD and an ISPP in an ACEND accredited program that is combined with a master's degree program.
- Student has a bachelor's degree in another field and completes coursework to earn a verification statement from a DPD and completes an ISPP in an ACEND accredited program and earns a master's degree in the student's field of choice, the master's degree could be done before or after the ISPP.
- Student has a master's degree in another field and completes coursework to earn a verification statement from a DPD and completes an ISPP in an ACEND accredited program.
- Student has a bachelor's and master's degree in another field and completes coursework to earn a verification statement from a DPD and completes an ISPP in an ACEND accredited program.

Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)

- Student completes an ACEND accredited bachelor's level CP and earns a master's degree in the student's field of choice.
- Student completes an ACEND accredited master's or doctoral level CP.
- Student has a master's degree in another field and completes an ACEND accredited bachelor's level CP.
- Student has a bachelor's degree in another field and completes an ACEND accredited CP at the master's or doctoral level.
- Student has a bachelor's degree in another field and completes an ACEND accredited CP at the bachelor's level and completes a master's degree in the student's field of choice either before or after completing the bachelor's level CP.

Other

- Student has a doctoral degree from a US regionally accredited college/university and completes an ISPP in an ACEND accredited program.
- Student completes an ACEND accredited future education model master's degree program.